

Alumni Newsletter

March 2024

Dear alumni,

Welcome to the latest edition of our Alumni Newsletter, filled with captivating stories and exclusive updates. Stay connected, alumni, to access exclusive content and networking opportunities. Your continued involvement keeps our community thrive future together!

Join our Return2Purple programme

Return2Purple is our Firm's boomerang programme aimed at welcoming back our talented and accomplished alumni who have embarked on new journeys outside the Firm, in line with our #PeopleFirst and #CARE values. Watch Manas Chadha speak about his Return2Purple experience.

Watch now

Interim Budget take

The Interim Budget reaffirmed the government's focus on infrastructure, 'Make in India', and welfare programmes. While lacking major surprises, it sets a promising foundation for growth, balancing fiscal prudence with optimism. With a comprehensive budget expected after the General Election results in July, it paints a hopeful vision for Vibrant Bharat, centered around the theme of nurturing a 'Developed India'.

Great Place to Work

The Interim Budget reaffirmed the government's focus on infrastructure, 'Make in India', and welfare programmes. While lacking major surprises, it sets a promising foundation for growth, balancing fiscal prudence with optimism. With a comprehensive budget expected after the General Election results in July, it paints a hopeful vision for Vibrant Bharat, centered around the theme of nurturing a 'Developed India'.

Kapil Dev - Grant Thornton Invitational: Karan Pratap Singh clinches his second title

The 2023 Kapil Dev - Grant Thornton Invitational witnessed a week of remarkable sporting achievements at the DLF Golf and Country Club. Following the success of the inaugural edition in 2022, this golf tournament continued to uphold values of sportsmanship and talent. 23-year-old Karan Pratap Singh, a rising star in golf since 2019, clinched his second career title, elevating him to the second position in the PGTI rankings.

DivEIn – Diversity, Equity and Inclusion

At Grant Thornton Bharat, diversity, equity, and inclusion (DE&I) are central to our #CARE culture. Our initiatives include WoMentorship for women navigating motherhood and WINGS for women on sabbatical. Recently, we expanded WoMentorship to support new fathers with DADvisor coaching. We have also launched a DE&I network, the first of its kind within the firm, uniting allies across locations and workgroups to advance our DE&I goals.

Top publications

Interim Budget 2024: Comprehensive Analysis

Travel Tech 2.0

Navigating Fintechs

Viksit Bharat by 2047

Unlocking opportunities: India-UAE start-up ecosystem convergence

Stay connected through our LinkedIn alumni community

