

I #ChooseToChallenge
the biases such as access to education, choices for girls and young women, and equal working rights across every level of business.

-Sonu Sharma

I #ChooseToChallenge
the difference in freedom given to different genders in our country.

- Ashmi Nayar

I #ChooseToChallenge
gender bias and break stereotypes associated with working moms.

- Sneha Bhattacharjee

I #ChoosetoChallenge
not to excuse myself for being a girl.

-Bhavika Oswal

From length of the hair to the choice of a skirt, from the use of makeup to not using the book at all,
the unchallenged.

-Radhika Kohli

There is no limit to what a woman can achieve.
I will celebrate women's achievements today
and tomorrow!

#ChooseToChallenge

-Shubham Jain

Alone we could, but together we did, because it's merrier that way.

#ChooseToChallenge

-Team Kochi

the prevalent biases and break stereotypes influencing behaviour such as gender-neutral parenting, celebrating each other's achievements.

-Saloni Agarwal

practices of differential treatment and believe that each child has equal rights irrespective of their gender.

-Bhawik Kapoor

gender stereotypes.
We should be given the freedom and option
to choose.

-Kajal Jha

I #ChooseToChallenge
the #conditioning that little boys and girls receive in their growing years.

-Meghna
Ramchandani

the people who set
barriers for women.

-Varsha Menon

by speaking up, calling out gender bias/stereotypes, instilling gender-neutral values in my child and showing empathy.
