

Real Estate (Regulation & Development) Act (RERA) – The State Affair

Foreword

A. Didar Singh
Secretary General | FICCI

After undergoing unprecedented change in the last two decades, the real estate sector continues to be at the forefront of the Indian Government's agenda on account of its potential to propel economic growth significantly. I am happy to share with you the findings of the FICCI-Grant Thornton-Khaitan & Co report "Real Estate (Regulation & Development) Act (RERA) - The State Affair". This report has brought to light some interesting facts about the rules at the state level. A first of its kind, the report presents a holistic assessment of pan-India (Uttar Pradesh, Madhya Pradesh, Maharashtra, Telangana, Delhi, Tamil Nadu, Karnataka, West Bengal, and union territories) RERA rules and puts forth recommendations for states that are still in the process of formulating the rules. The report also assesses the impact of the regulation on various stakeholders covered under the Act.

Notified last year, RERA is now seen as one of the most significant reforms in the real estate sector. According to RERA, all the state governments were to put in place the Act's rules and regulations by May 1, 2017. While some states and union territories have either notified or drafted the rules, others are yet to frame their own rules.

The release of the report in the seminar on Real Estate Regulation Rules, GST & Affordable Housing (Credit Linked Subsidy Scheme) on May 4, 2017 at Federation House, New Delhi, would set the tone for deliberations. I am sure that findings of the report would be invaluable not only to realtors, but to consumers, government, research, academia and the industry as well. The ideas and conclusions that arise from this report would go a long way in addressing the regulatory challenges and show the path for taking the real estate sector to greater heights.

We are delighted to share with you the FICCI-Grant Thornton-Khaitan & Co report “Real Estate (Regulation & Development) Act (RERA) - The State Affair” which gives an insight into some of the key provisions of the Act across various states in a comparative form.

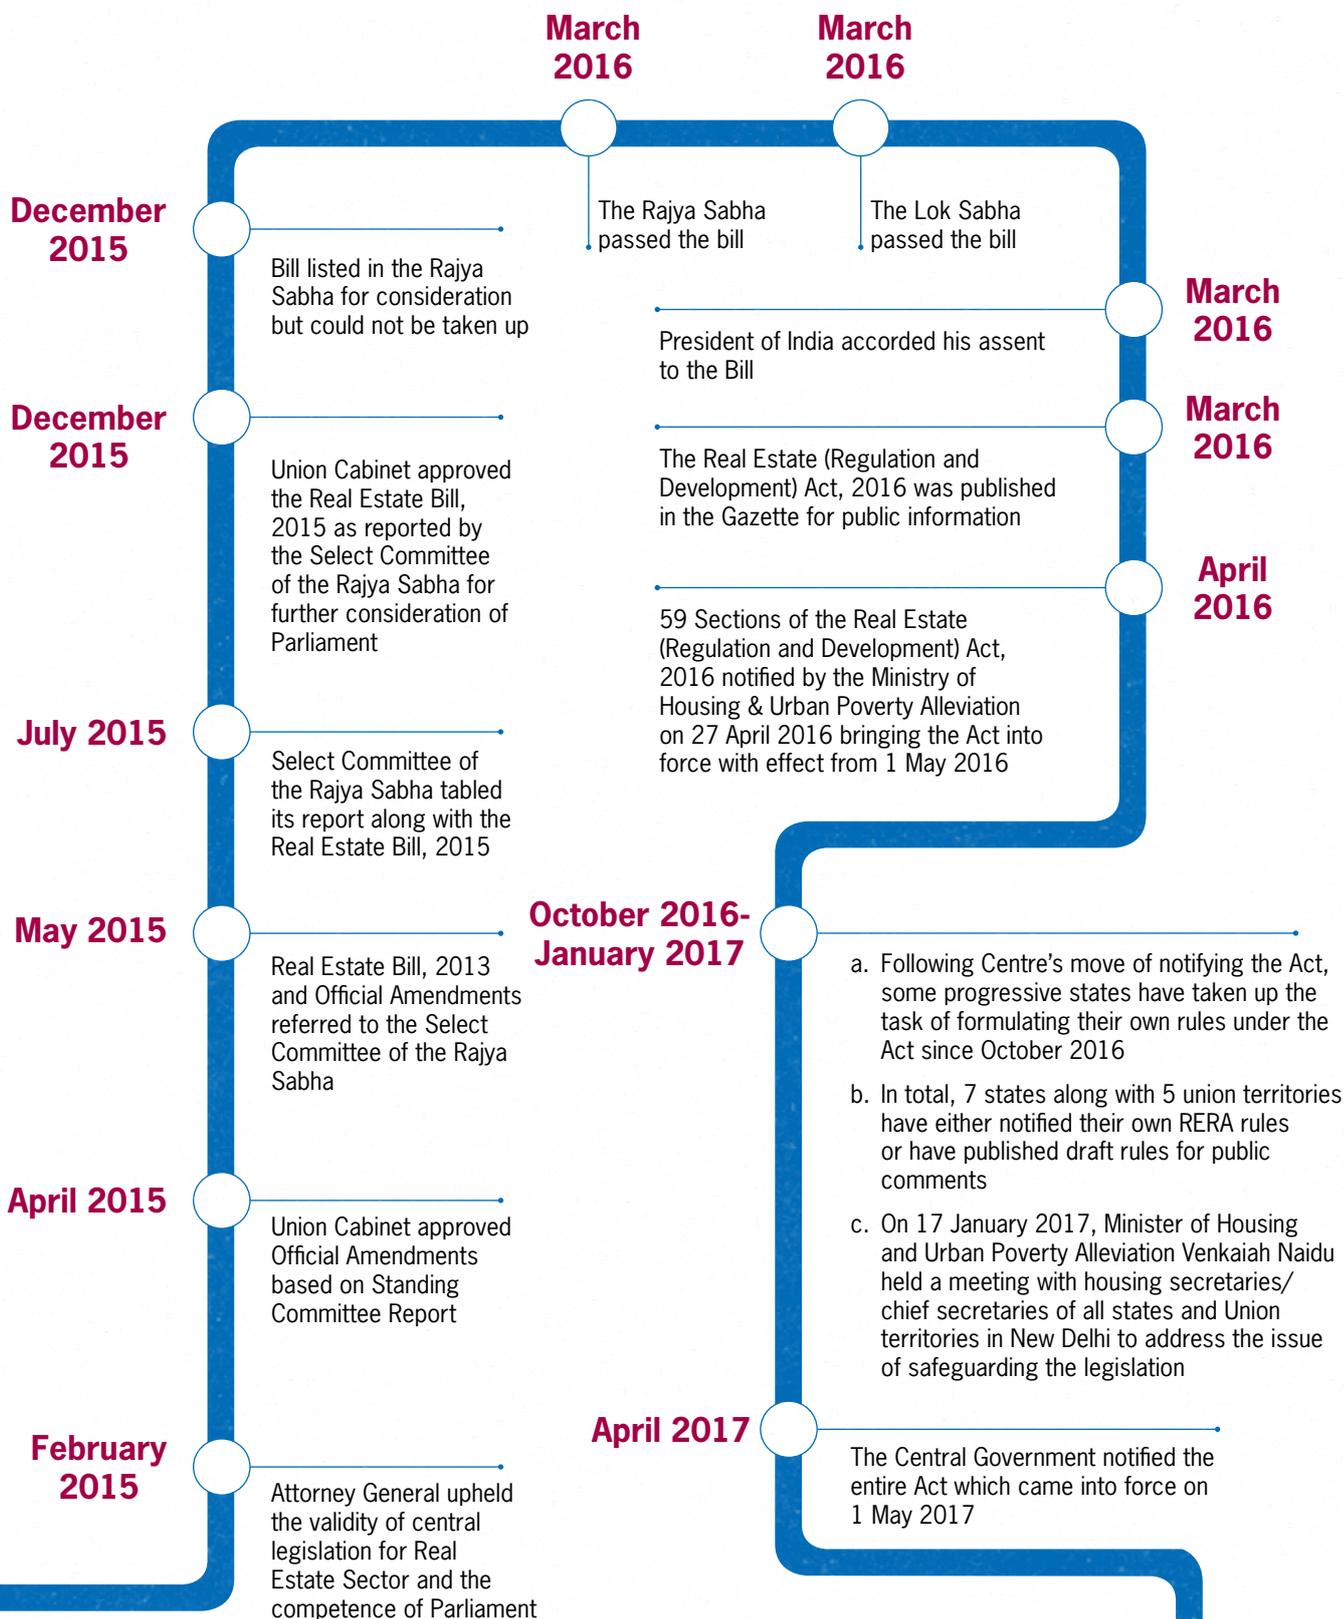

It’s a defining moment for the real estate sector which is set for a tectonic shift with the implementation of this Act and its various provisions. RERA has the potential of transforming the real estate sector by bringing in much-needed transparency and consistency, apart from boosting the customer confidence and attracting investments for the sector. Going forward, companies in the real estate sector would need to ramp up their systems/processes and focus on areas of project planning and design. Besides, companies should also work towards efficient working capital management to ensure full compliance with the law.

While states like Gujarat, Maharashtra, Uttar Pradesh, Madhya Pradesh, and Odisha have finalised their rules, in some states, current rules are still in the draft stages. It is in the interest of the sector that states are able to comply with the timelines.

I hope this report not only facilitates a healthy discussion among the panellists present here today, but also helps various stakeholders understand the impact of some of the key provisions in their respective states.

Mapping India's regulation

A number of states have either notified or published into their own rules under the state Act with some diversions and improvement in provisions from the main Act. The subsequent section maps the entire national scenario till the end of April 2017.

- a. Rules framed by union territories, Delhi, Gujarat, Maharashtra, Madhya Pradesh, Odisha and Andhra Pradesh are in force.
- b. Rules framed by Uttar Pradesh have been finalised but are yet to be notified.
- c. States such as West Bengal, Karnataka and Tamil Nadu have framed draft rules for public comments.
- d. Union Territories and states such as Maharashtra, Delhi, Karnataka, Tamil Nadu, Odisha and Andhra Pradesh have prescribed the format of agreement for sale which a promoter is required to adopt while selling the apartment.
- e. Rules framed by Gujarat are primarily related to the appointment, functioning and administration of the Real Estate Regulatory Authority and Real Estate Appellate Tribunal.

Disclosure requirement

DELHI & UTs (IN FORCE)

Disclose the original sanctioned plan, layout plan and specifications and the subsequent modifications carried out, if any, including the existing sanctioned plan, layout plan and specifications.

Disclose the status of project and extent of completion.

Disclose the size of the apartment based on carpet area even if earlier sold on any other basis such as super area, super built up area or built up area.

In case of plotted development, the promoter shall disclose the area of plot being sold to allottees.

Disclose the (i) total amount of money collected from the allottees, (ii) total amount of money used for development of the project, and (iii) total amount of balance money lying with the promoter.

(Unlike Maharashtra, it does not provide for disclosure of amount of balance money receivable from existing allottees and the total amount of money receivable from sale of unsold units)

MAHARASHTRA (IN FORCE)

The promoter is required to submit the following certificates:

- (a) Architect's certificate - Certifying the percentage of completion of construction.
- (b) Engineer's certificate - Certifying the estimated cost to complete remaining construction of each of the building/wing of the project.
- (c) CA certificate – Certifying the balance cost to complete the project.
- (d) CA certificate - Certify the (i) balance amount of receivables from the apartments/flats/premises sold or allotted with respect to those in which agreements have been executed, and (ii) estimated amount of receivables from unsold units calculated at the prevailing Annual Statement of Rates (ASR).
- (e) The number of apartments sold or allotted to allottees and the basis on which they were sold/allotted. (Basis over here refers to carpet area, super area, super built up area).
- (f) In case of plotted development, the area of plots sold to allottees and details like the extent of share of common areas and amenities.

KARNATAKA (DRAFT)

Disclose the status of project and extent of completion.

Disclose the size of the apartment based on carpet area even if earlier sold on any other basis such as super area, super built up area or built up area.

In case of plotted development, the promoter shall disclose the area of plot being sold to allottees.

UTTAR PRADESH (NOTIFIED BUT NOT IN FORCE)

Disclose the status of project and extent of completion.

Disclose the size of the apartment based on carpet area even if earlier sold on any other basis such a super area, super built up area or built up area.

In case of plotted development, the promoter shall disclose the area of plot being sold to allottees.

TAMIL NADU (DRAFT)

Disclose the status of project and extent of completion.

Disclose the size of the apartment based on carpet area even if earlier sold on any other basis such as super area, super built up area or built up area.

In case of plotted development, the promoter shall disclose the area of plot being sold to allottees.

WEST BENGAL (DRAFT)

Disclose the size of the apartment based on carpet area even if earlier sold on any other basis such as super area, super built up area or built up area.

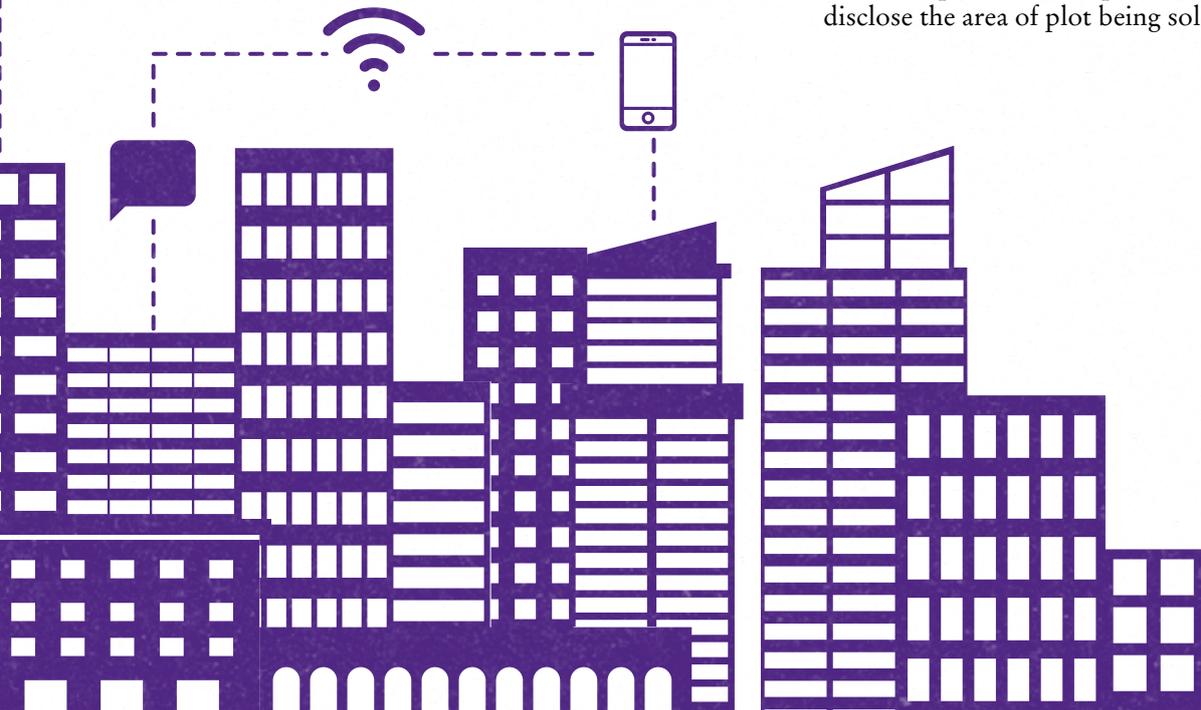

In case of plotted development, the promoter shall disclose the area of plot being sold to allottees.

ONGOING PROJECTS

Disclosure on timeline for completion of balance construction

DELHI (IN FORCE)

Disclose the original time period disclosed to the allottee for completion of the project at the time of sale including the delay and the time period within which he undertakes to complete the pending project, which shall be commensurate with the extent of development already completed, and this information shall be certified by an engineer, an architect and a chartered accountant in practice.

MAHARASHTRA (IN FORCE)

Disclose all details of ongoing project including (i) the extent of the construction work completed in respect of buildings as per the last approved sanctioned plan of the project, and (ii) the extent of development of common areas, amenities etc. along with expected period of completion of the ongoing project which shall commensurate to the extent of development work completed.

For Delhi, UT and Maharashtra, it is unclear as to whether the promoter would at all be liable to pay compensation for delay of the contract period and if yes, at what rate, i.e. at the contractual rate or the rates fixed as per the rules or whether the promoter will be absolved from the compensation for such delay as long as she/he completes the project within the new timeline so declared

ONGOING PROJECTS

Deposit of 70 per cent realisation - past or future receivables

DELHI & UT (IN FORCE)

Promoter is required to deposit in the separate bank account, 70 per cent of the amounts already realised from the allottees, which have not been utilised for construction of the project or the land cost.

MAHARASHTRA (IN FORCE)

Maharashtra Rules clarify that promoter is required to only deposit 70 per cent of such amounts as are to be realised from the allottees after the Act comes into force.

However, if the receivables of the ongoing project is less than the estimated cost of balance construction, then the promoter shall deposit 100 per cent of the amounts to be realised in the separate account.

PROVISIONS WHERE ACT IS SILENT

Overlap with certain special Acts

Special Acts may have an overriding effect. However, there is an overlap of rules. This needs further clarification which is important to safeguard the interests of developers as well as consumers.

Compliance related to mixed projects

There is no clarity on the type of project and their definition – whether the project is a mixed, standalone residential or commercial or a large scale township. For instance, a certain portion of a mixed land use project or a particular tower of a large township project can be treated as a single project.

Change of guard during the ongoing projects

A number of times companies sell stakes or a portion of the project to a private equity fund. As a result, the management changes. Act is silent on its impact and the eventuality.

Structural defect and the ones induced by allottees

There is no mention of structural defects introduced by allottee after occupation certificate has been issued.

Withdrawal from separate account at the time of refund

In case of termination, where the promoter is required to refund the instalments received from the allottee, it is not clear if the promoter will be permitted to withdraw from the separate account 70 per cent of the realisations received from the allottee.

Annexure – How will RERA impact the sector and stakeholders

Results of a survey conducted during the second half of 2016

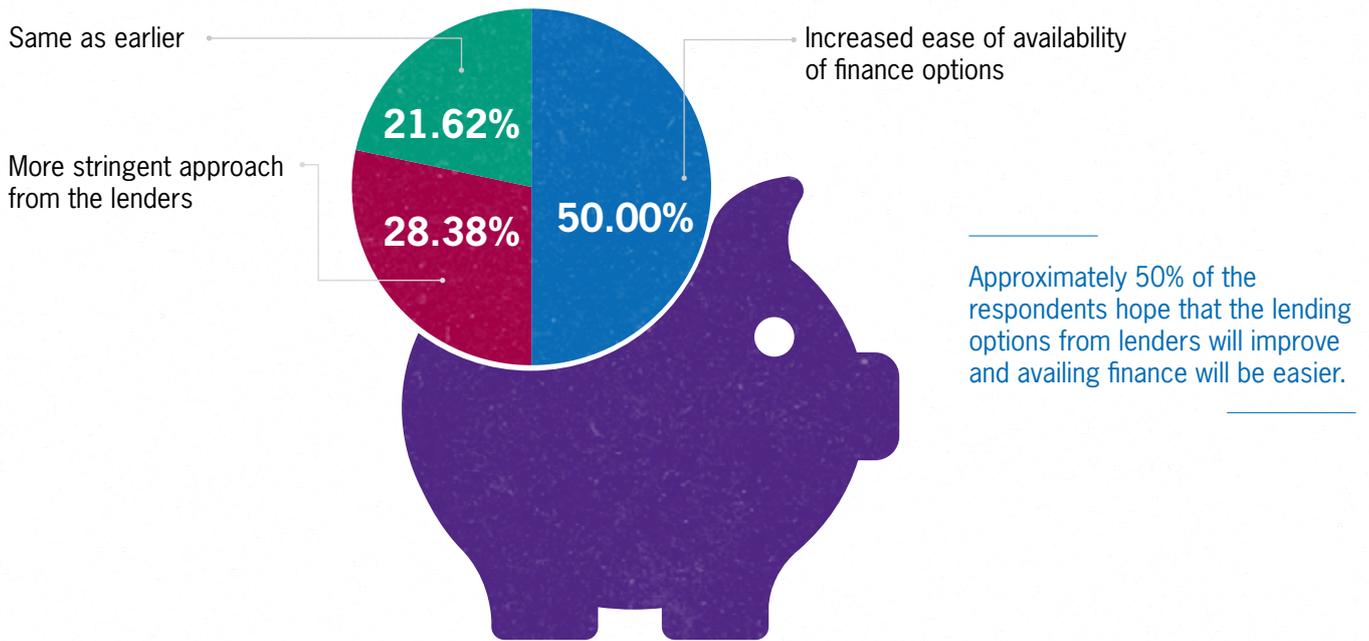

1. Post implementation of RERA, what are the major changes that you expect to see while making real estate dealings?

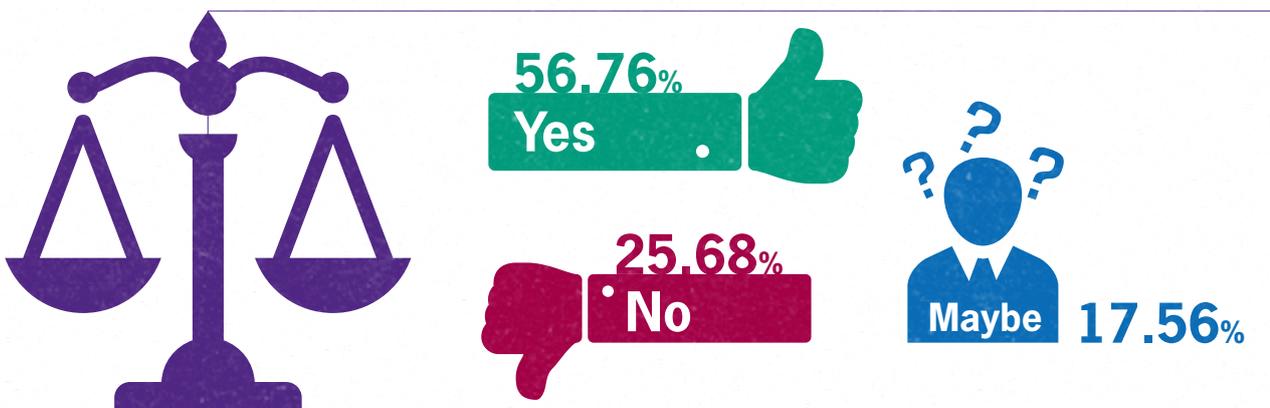

2. As an investor in real estate, do you think RERA will boost the governance hold on the sector and eventually lead to increase in foreign (FDI) and domestic investments into the sector in near future?

3. Post RERA implementation, what changes do you expect in lending options from bankers/institutions?

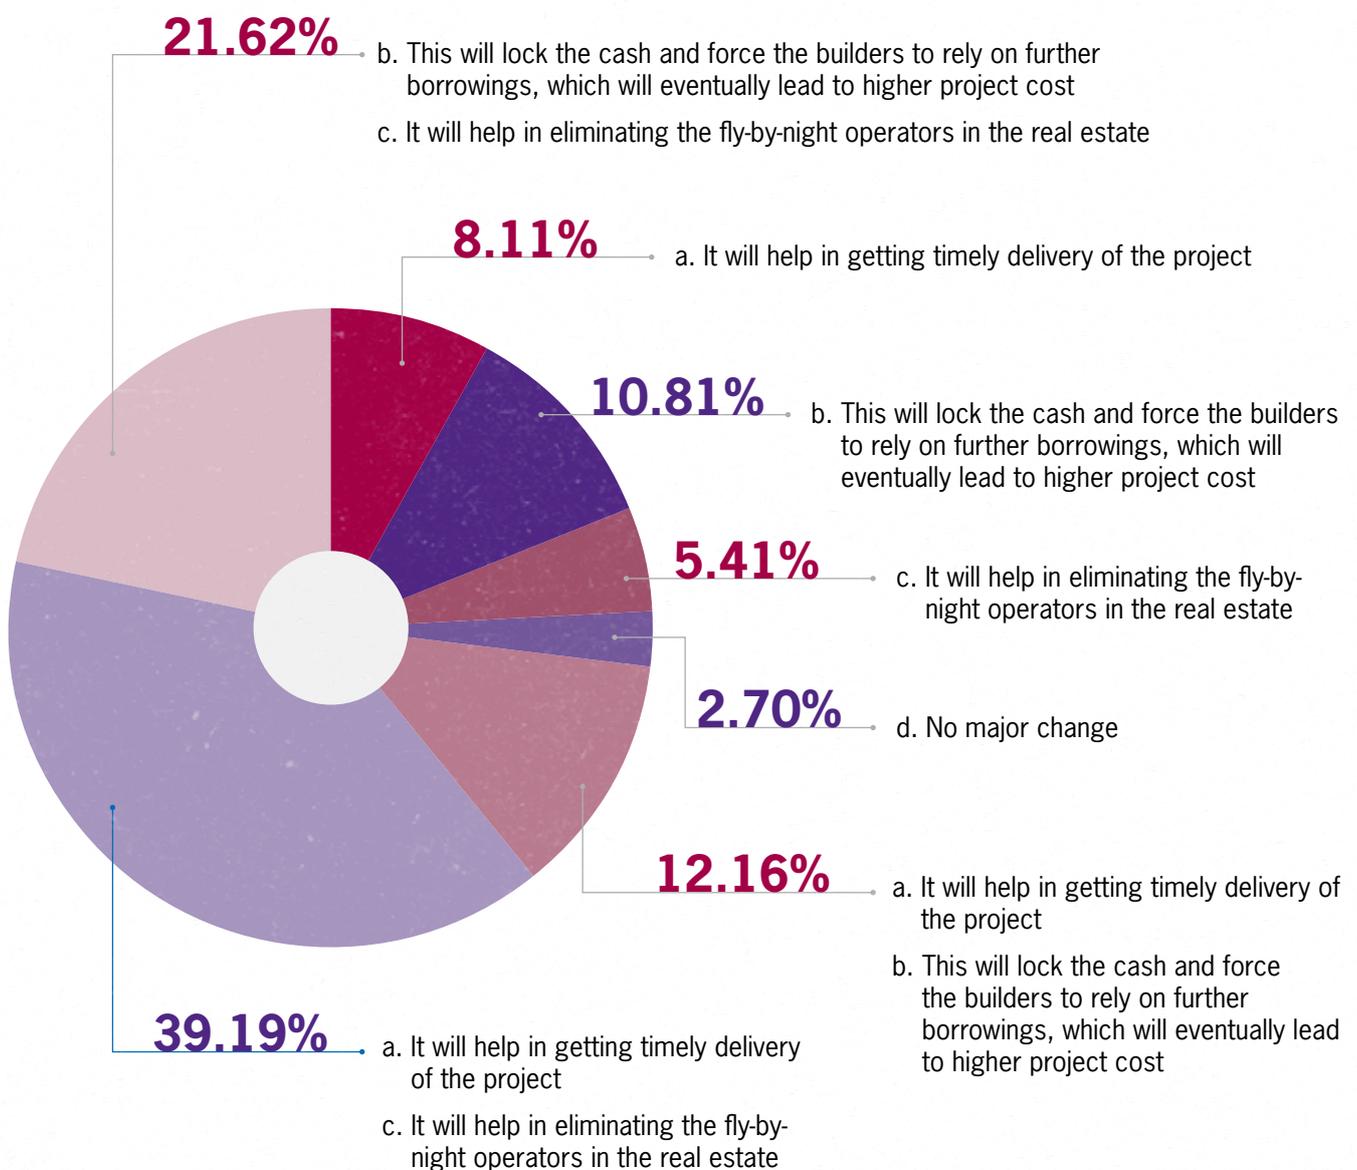

4. The Act provides for lot of transparency to be maintained by the developers. Do you think these practices will reduce litigation going forward?

More than 50% of the respondents believe that RERA will reduce litigations

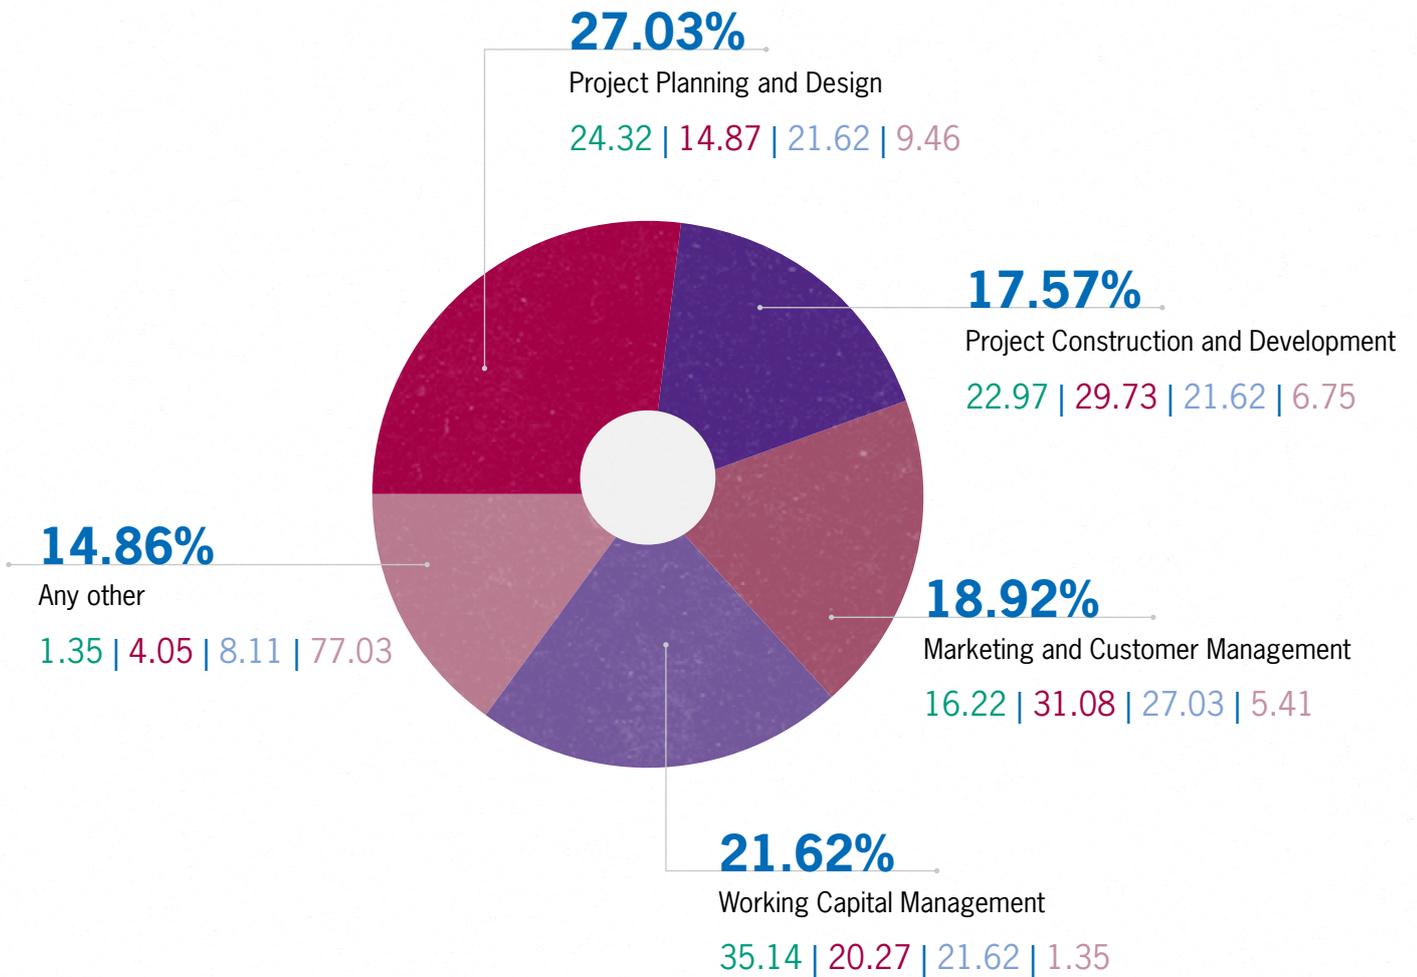

5. What is your opinion on the rule of depositing 70 per cent of sales proceeds in a separate account? (can choose any two)

- It will help in getting timely delivery of the project
- This will lock the cash and force the builders to rely on further borrowings, which will eventually lead to higher project cost
- It will help in eliminating the fly-by-night operators in the real estate sector
- No major change

Close to 40% of the respondents feel that the implementation of RERA will help timely delivery of projects and also eliminate non-serious players from the sector

6. Where do you see the maximum impact of RERA in the operations of your Company? (Rank 1 -5)

Rank 1

■ Rank 2
 ■ Rank 3
 ■ Rank 4
 ■ Rank 5

More than 40% of the respondents believe that maximum impact will be in the area of project planning and construction
